

NASHVILLE ROAD COMMUNITY CHURCH

WEEKLY ENEWS FOR APRIL 24 2016

The poet Henry David Thoreau once wrote “Rather than love, than money, than fame, give me truth.” Poets have a talent ... in this case Thoreau is esteeming the value of truth above all and saying he’d rather have it as opposed to anything else. Do we agree? We need to hear truth but most of us don’t really want to hear it as we’d rather here a version of truth that has a “truthiness” that allows us to continue living the way we want to. This Sunday we’ll look at what happens when the Holy Spirit “clothed” the disciples with “power from on high” and see the evidence of that power in the sermon that Peter gave that day. This once brash, yet fearful follower of Jesus, boldly proclaims the truth about man (that we’re often reluctant to hear) and the truth of what Jesus accomplished for mankind, as the Holy Spirit of God empowers and awakens the church. 35TH ANNIVERSARY REUNION

CALVARY CHRISTIAN SCHOOL | KLEINBURG CHRISTIAN ACADEMY

SATURDAY APRIL 23RD, 2016

Dear NRCC Family;

NRCC is actively involved in many ministries, one of which is our Christian School. We hope that next Saturday's 35th Anniversary Reunion is on your calendars! Drop in between 11:00am and 3:00pm. Look back in time at student-created classroom displays of life in 1981-present. Meet local and provincial dignitaries and Alliance of Christian Schools officials. Get reacquainted with former pastors, staff and students. Enjoy complimentary snacks and cake. Staff, students and parents would love to have you celebrate God's goodness and faithfulness with us!

P.S. We have quite a bit of community involvement with regards to food preparation and donations. We're looking for a few people to each make a loaf of sandwiches. If you're interested, there is a sign-up sheet on the church welcome desk.

See you Saturday!
